PHILLIPS LYTLE LLP ATTORNEY CRAIG R. BUCKI APPOINTED TO NYSBA COMMITTEE ON LAW, YOUTH AND CITIZENSHIP

BUFFALO, NY – Craig R. Bucki, an attorney with Phillips Lytle LLP, a full service law firm with statewide coverage, has been appointed to the New York State Bar Association's Committee on Law, Youth and Citizenship and its Mock Trial Subcommittee. In this capacity, Mr. Bucki, along with other committee members, has worked to co-author Strongarm v. Rocket, a hypothetical personal injury case that will serve as the fact pattern for the New York State Bar Association's 2008 Statewide High School Mock Trial Tournament.

At Phillips Lytle, Mr. Bucki focuses his practice in general civil litigation and trial matters. A Phi Beta Kappa graduate, magna cum laude, of Yale University, he holds his J.D. from Columbia University School of Law. In addition, Mr. Bucki serves as secretary of the Western New York Chapter of the Kosciuszko Foundation and has worked as a press desk official at the Scripps National Spelling Bee in Washington, D.C.

Phillips Lytle is a full-service law firm with seven offices across New York State in Buffalo, Albany, Chautauqua, Garden City, New York City and Rochester. With the farthest geographic reach of any law firm in the state of New York, they are well equipped to meet the needs of their clients.
