PHILLIPS LYTLE LLP PARTNER JOHN G. SCHMIDT JR. PRESENTS AT BUFFALO'S FIRST E-DISCOVERY SYMPOSIUM

BUFFALO, N.Y. – John G. Schmidt Jr., a partner with the law firm of Phillips Lytle LLP, one of the region's largest full service law firms, recently spoke at "Buffalo's First e-Discovery Symposium – Applying the New Federal Rule Changes." He presented on "Recent Developments in E-Discovery in Upstate New York." The event was sponsored by DocuLegal, the Bar Association of Erie County, Erie Institute of Law and D4.

At Phillips Lytle, Mr. Schmidt concentrates his practice in the areas of commercial litigation, business torts, employee disloyalty, federal practice, e-commerce litigation, technology law, computer forensics and class action defense. A member of the New York State Bar Association, the Bar Association of Erie County and the Federalist Society for Law and Public Policy, he earned his J.D. from Rutgers School of Law and his B.F.A. from New York University. In addition, Mr. Schmidt serves on the Executive Committee for Boy Scouts of America, Greater Niagara Frontier Council and the board of Leadership Buffalo.

Phillips Lytle is a full-service law firm with seven offices across New York State in Buffalo, Albany, Chautauqua, Garden City, New York City and Rochester. With the farthest geographic reach of any law firm in the state of New York, they are well equipped to meet the needs of their clients.
