PHILLIPS LYTLE LLP ATTORNEY MARC W. BROWN AUTHORS ARTICLE FOR NEW YORK REAL PROPERTY LAW JOURNAL

BUFFALO, NY – Marc W. Brown, an attorney with Phillips Lytle LLP, a full service law firm with statewide coverage, has penned an article titled, “Protecting Boards of Assessment Review When Dealing with Unresponsive Property Owners Who Challenge Their Assessments,” which appears in the Winter 2008 edition of the New York Real Property Law Journal. The article focuses on the consequences for property owners who file tax assessment complaints without supporting documentation, and who fail to respond to requests for information made by the Board of Assessment Review.

At Phillips Lytle, Mr. Brown concentrates his practice in the area of litigation pertaining to contractual disputes, real property, personal injury, products liability, toxic torts and collection enforcement. He earned a J.D. from University at Buffalo Law School – The State University of New York, an M.B.A. from State University of New York at Binghamton, School of Management and a B.A., cum laude, from Harpur College at the State University of New York at Binghamton. Mr. Brown is a member of the American, New York State and Erie County Bar Associations and remains active with the University at Buffalo Law School Alumni Association serving on the board of directors and the GOLD Group board of directors.

Phillips Lytle is a full-service law firm with seven offices across New York State in Buffalo, Albany, Chautauqua, Garden City, New York City and Rochester. With the farthest geographic reach of any law firm in the state of New York, they are well equipped to meet the needs of their clients.
