PHILLIPS LYTLE LLP PARTNER-IN-CHARGE RICHARD E. HONEN OFFERS REAL WORLD ADVICE TO LAW AND GRADUATE STUDENTS

ALBANY, NY – Richard E. Honen, Partner-In-Charge of the Albany office of Phillips Lytle, a full service law firm with statewide coverage, continues his involvement in educating future entrepreneurs with three class lectures at Capital Region colleges in March. At Albany Law School of Union University, he will speak on Startup Company Financing on March 4 and Financing the Business: Debt and Equity Capital on March 13. On March 31, Mr. Honen will visit SUNY Albany School of Business to present on Venture Capital Deal Terms.

Mr. Honen has lectured on behalf of the Science and Technology Law Center of Albany Law School Smart Start Program, Albany Law School of Union University, Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute and the University at Albany at both the graduate and undergraduate level.

At Phillips Lytle, Mr. Honen focuses his practice in technology transfer, corporate and venture capital law and commercial litigation. Listed in the 2007 Upstate New York Super Lawyers, Mr. Honen earned his J.D. from Albany Law School Union University and his B.A. from the State University of New York at Albany. He is active with several economic and venture capital organizations within the Capital Region, executive committee member and director with The Center for Economic Growth, founding member of the Tech Valley Angels Network, Innovation Committee of the Business Council of New York State and board member of the Albany-Colonie Regional Chamber of Commerce.

Phillips Lytle is a full-service law firm with seven offices across New York State in Albany, Buffalo, Chautauqua, Garden City, New York City and Rochester. With the farthest geographic reach of any law firm in the state of New York, they are well equipped to meet the needs of their clients.
