PHILLIPS LYTLE LLP ADDS TO BUFFALO OFFICE

New associates join energy & environment, telecommunications and litigation practices

BUFFALO, NY – Phillips Lytle LLP, one of the region's largest full service law firms, continues to grow its Buffalo office with the addition of three associates, Susan M. Marriott, Michael C. Murphy and Andrew J. Wells.

Ms. Marriott's practice concentrates in the areas of environment and energy, telecommunications and land use and zoning law, along with climate change policy. She earned a M.E.M. from Yale University School of Forestry & Environmental Studies, a J.D., cum laude, from Pace University School of Law and a B.S. from Michigan State University. A resident of Buffalo, Ms. Marriott is also a member of the New York State Wireless Association.

At Phillips Lytle, Mr. Murphy concentrates his practice in environmental law and energy including brownfield redevelopment. He earned a J.D., summa cum laude, from Touro College Jacob D. Fuchsberg Law Center and a B.S. from Long Island University, Southampton Campus. Mr. Murphy resides in Buffalo.

A resident of Cheektowaga, Mr. Wells concentrates his practice in the area of commercial litigation handling a variety of contract and business-related disputes. He holds a J.D., cum laude, from University at Buffalo Law School – The State University of New York and a B.A., summa cum laude, from Niagara University. In addition, Mr. Wells is a United States Army Reserve Civil Affairs Sergeant.

Phillips Lytle is a full-service law firm with seven offices across New York State in Buffalo, Albany, Chautauqua, Garden City, New York City and Rochester. With the farthest geographic reach of any law firm in the state of New York, they are well equipped to meet the needs of their clients.
