PHILLIPS LYTLE PARTNER KENNETH A. MANNING HONORED BY THE NEW YORK STATE BAR ASSOCIATION

Recipient of 2008 President's Pro Bono Service Award

BUFFALO, NY – Kenneth A. Manning, a partner with Phillips Lytle LLP, a full service law firm with statewide coverage, is a recipient of the 2008 President's Pro Bono Service Award bestowed by the New York State Bar Association. This annual award honors outstanding pro bono service in the legal field and emphasizes the importance of such service in helping to provide all New Yorkers with equal access to the justice system, regardless of income.

Mr. Manning received the individual attorney honor for the 8th Judicial District for his commitment to improving access to justice through big picture projects that inspire change, as well as directly representing individuals in need of legal assistance. In addition, he currently serves as co-chair of the 8th Judicial District pro bono committee.

Mr. Manning has experience in corporate litigation, personal injury litigation and class actions. A member of the American, New York and Erie County Bar Associations, he is listed in The Best Lawyers in America[®] and the 2007 Upstate New York Super Lawyers. Mr. Manning earned his J.D. from University at Buffalo Law School – The State University of New York and his B.S., summa cum laude, from University at Buffalo Engineering School. In addition, he serves on the Dean's Advisory Council for University at Buffalo Law School and as past chair of the Dean's Advisory Council for the University at Buffalo Engineering School.

Phillips Lytle is a full-service law firm with seven offices across New York State in Buffalo, Albany, Chautauqua, Garden City, New York City and Rochester. With the farthest geographic reach of any law firm in the state of New York, they are well equipped to meet the needs of their clients.
