PHILLIPS LYTLE LLP ATTORNEY CRAIG R. BUCKI AUTHORS ARTICLE FOR ALBANY LAW REVIEW AND NEW YORK STATE BAR PUBLICATION

BUFFALO, NY – Craig R. Bucki, an attorney with Phillips Lytle LLP, a full service law firm with statewide coverage, has penned an article titled, “Regionalism Revisited: The Effort to Streamline Governance in Buffalo and Erie County, New York,” which appears in the Albany Law Review and the winter edition of the New York State Bar Association’s Government, Law and Policy Journal. The article addresses regionalism and implementing tax-increment financing on a trial basis, as a means of increasing the City of Buffalo’s property tax base.

At Phillips Lytle, Mr. Bucki focuses his practice in trial. A member of the New York State Bar Association, he earned his J.D. from Columbia University School of Law and his B.A., magna cum laude, from Yale University. In addition, Mr. Bucki is the secretary of the Kosciuszko Foundation, Western New York Chapter and volunteers as the press desk official for Scripps National Spelling Bee.

Phillips Lytle is a full-service law firm with seven offices across New York State in Buffalo, Albany, Chautauqua, Garden City, New York City and Rochester. With the farthest geographic reach of any law firm in the state of New York, they are well equipped to meet the needs of their clients.
