PHILLIPS LYTLE ATTORNEY SARAH K. RANNI APPOINTED A LOCAL DIRECTOR OF THE WNY CHAPTER OF THE NEW YORK WOMEN'S BAR ASSOCIATION

BUFFALO, NY – Sarah K. Ranni, an attorney with Phillips Lytle LLP, a full service law firm with statewide coverage, has been appointed a local director of the Women's Bar Association of the State of New York, Western New York Chapter for a one-year term.

The WNY Chapter of the Women's Bar Association of the State of New York serves women lawyers and law students by providing a local community in which to promote the advancement of the status of women in society and in the legal profession, the fair and equal administration of justice and by acting as a forum through which to communicate the voice of its members.

At Phillips Lytle, Ms. Ranni focuses her practice in all aspects of employee benefits. She earned her J.D. from University at Buffalo Law School – The State University of New York and her B.A. from Fordham University. A member of the Bar Association of Erie County, Ms. Ranni also serves on the board of directors for Fordham Club of Buffalo.

Phillips Lytle is a full-service law firm with seven offices across New York State in Buffalo, Albany, Chautauqua, Garden City, New York City and Rochester. With the farthest geographic reach of any law firm in the state of New York, they are well equipped to meet the needs of their clients.
