PHILLIPS LYTLE LLP PARTNER CHRISTOPHER G. DORMAN SPEAKS AT AMERICAN BAR ASSOCIATION BUSINESS LAW ANNUAL MEETING

NEW YORK CITY, NY – Christopher G. Dorman, a partner with Phillips Lytle LLP, a full service law firm with statewide coverage, presented at the American Bar Association Section of Business Law Annual Meeting. He spoke to the subcommittee on IP Finance on the topic “Issues relating to financing IP licenses.”

The mission of the Business Law Section is to further the development and improvement of business law, educate members in business law and related professional responsibilities and help members to serve their clients competently, efficiently and professionally. The annual meeting, held in New York City August 8-11, focused on programs devoted to the practice of business law and the latest commercial and business law issues of the day.

At Phillips Lytle, Mr. Dorman concentrates his practice in the area of banking and commercial law. A member of the American and New York State Bar Associations, he received his J.D. from St. John’s University School of Law, an M.A. from Columbia University and his B.A. from St. John’s University. Mr. Dorman is also a member of the New York County Lawyers Association and The Law Society of England and Wales. In addition, he serves as an adjunct professor of banking at New York University, School of Continuing Professional Studies.

Phillips Lytle is a full-service law firm with seven offices across New York State in New York City, Albany, Buffalo, Chautauqua, Garden City and Rochester. With the farthest geographic reach of any law firm in the state of New York, they are well equipped to meet the needs of their clients.
