PHILLIPS LYTLE PARTNER DEBORAH A. DOXEY ELECTED SECRETARY OF NEW YORK STATE BAR ASSOCIATION BUSINESS LAW SECTION

BUFFALO, NY – Deborah A. Doxey, a partner with Phillips Lytle LLP, a full service law firm with statewide coverage, was elected secretary of the New York State Bar Association Business Law Section for 2009 and will continue to serve as a member of its executive committee. She is on the leadership progression to be chair of the Business Law Section for 2012.

The Business Law Section, with a membership of approximately 4,500, is one of the largest Sections of the New York State Bar Association. Its members consist of attorneys whose practice involves some aspect of commerce or finance although the focus of the practice of the members is quite diverse – ranging from securities to consumer finance.

At Phillips Lytle, Ms. Doxey focuses in the areas of banking and commercial lending, including secured transactions, asset-based finance, acquisition financing and commercial real estate transactions. A member of the American, New York State and Erie County Bar Associations, she earned a J.D. from Duke University School of Law and a B.A., summa cum laude, from State University of New York at Albany.

Phillips Lytle is a full-service law firm with seven offices across New York State in Buffalo, Albany, Chautauqua, Garden City, New York City and Rochester. With the farthest geographic reach of any law firm in the state of New York, they are well equipped to meet the needs of their clients.
