PHILLIPS LYTLE LLP PARTNER AND OFFICE LEADER GREGORY L. PETERSON PRESENTS AT CIVIL RIGHTS SYMPOSIUM

CHAUTAUQUA, N.Y. – Gregory L. Peterson, partner and office leader of the Chautauqua County offices of Phillips Lytle LLP, one of the region's largest full service law firms, recently participated in the day-long symposium "Justice Deferred: Albion Tourgee and the Fight for Civil Rights," at the Robert H. Jackson Center in Jamestown. Mr. Peterson presented a lecture placing American color prejudice and Nazi anti-Semitism within the context of international law. The event inaugurated a three-month exhibition of rare historical documents from the Tourgee Collection, an archive of items held in trust by the Chautauqua County Historical Society.

Currently, Mr. Peterson serves as chairman of the Robert H. Jackson Center, which honors the United States Supreme Court Justice who was the architect of the international trial process and the chief prosecutor of the surviving Nazi leaders at Nuremberg, Germany.

At Phillips Lytle, Mr. Peterson focuses in all areas of real estate, including development and financial transactions, areas of corporate counseling including acquisitions, administration and strategic planning, not-for-profit corporate formation, tax exemption and qualifications with New York State administrative areas. A member of the American, New York, Jamestown, Pennsylvania and Northern Chautauqua County Bar Associations, he earned a J.D. from The Dickinson School of Law of the Pennsylvania State University and a B.A., Phi Beta Kappa, from Allegheny College. In addition, he serves on the board of directors for The Resource Center, and is a past board member of the Fredonia College Foundation.

Phillips Lytle is a full-service law firm with seven offices across New York State in Buffalo, Albany, Chautauqua, Garden City, New York City and Rochester. With the farthest geographic reach of any law firm in the state of New York, they are well equipped to meet the needs of their clients.
