PHILLIPS LYTLE PARTNER KENNETH A. MANNING APPOINTED TO ROSWELL PARK CANCER INSTITUTE'S BOARD OF DIRECTORS

BUFFALO, NY – Kenneth A. Manning, a partner with Phillips Lytle LLP, a full service law firm with statewide coverage, has been appointed to Roswell Park Cancer Institute's board of directors by Sheldon Silver, Speaker of the New York State Assembly. Mr. Manning's three-year term is effective immediately.

Roswell Park Cancer Institute, founded in 1898, is the nation's first cancer research, treatment and education center. The Institute was one of the first cancer centers in the country to be named a National Cancer Institute-designated comprehensive cancer center and remains the only facility with this designation in Upstate New York.

Mr. Manning has experience in corporate litigation, personal injury litigation and class actions. A member of the American, New York and Erie County Bar Associations, he is listed in The Best Lawyers in America[®] and the 2008 Upstate New York Super Lawyers. Mr. Manning earned his J.D. from University at Buffalo Law School – The State University of New York and his B.S., summa cum laude, from University at Buffalo Engineering School. In addition, he is a member emeritus for the Dean's Advisory Council of University at Buffalo Law School and is past chair of the Dean's Advisory Council for the University at Buffalo Engineering School.

Phillips Lytle is a full-service law firm with seven offices across New York State in Buffalo, Albany, Chautauqua, Garden City, New York City and Rochester. With the farthest geographic reach of any law firm in the state of New York, they are well equipped to meet the needs of their clients.
