PHILLIPS LYTLE ATTORNEYS CHRISTOPHER L. HAYES AND MINRYU KIM ELECTED TO OFFICER POSITIONS WITH MINORITY BAR ASSOCIATION

BUFFALO, NY – Christopher L. Hayes and Minryu Kim, attorneys with Phillips Lytle LLP, a full service law firm with statewide coverage, have been elected to officer positions with the Minority Bar Association of Western New York. Hayes has been appointed corresponding secretary and Kim as a director, each for a one year term.

The Minority Bar Association of Western New York, Inc. ("MBAWNY") is an organization comprised of minority attorneys in Western New York, whose goals are to protect the civil rights of all people and to enhancement the legal services available to minority communities. The MBAWNY also provides scholarships and mentoring programs to students, and educational and professional support to minority attorneys and legal professionals.

At Phillips Lytle, Mr. Hayes concentrates his practice on general trial and labor and employment matters including employment discrimination. He earned his J.D. from University of Notre Dame Law School and his B.A. from Canisius College.

Ms. Kim focuses her practice in the area of civil litigation including commercial, corporate and estates in both state and federal courts. She earned her J.D. from University at Buffalo Law School – The State University of New York and her B.S., cum laude, from Boston University. In addition, Ms. Kim is a board member for Pick of the Crop.

Phillips Lytle is a full-service law firm with seven offices across New York State in Buffalo, Albany, Chautauqua, Garden City, New York City and Rochester. With the farthest geographic reach of any law firm in the state of New York, they are well equipped to meet the needs of their clients.
