PHILLIPS LYTLE ATTORNEY TIMOTHY W. HOOVER APPOINTED TO NEIGHBORHOOD LEGAL SERVICES BOARD AND U.S. COURT OF APPEALS PANEL

BUFFALO, NY – Timothy W. Hoover, an attorney with Phillips Lytle LLP, one of the region’s best known law firms, has been chosen to serve on a local board of directors and a federal appellate pro bono panel. He has been appointed by the Bar Association of Erie County to the Neighborhood Legal Services board of directors for a three-year term. Neighborhood Legal Services, Inc. (NLS) is a not-for-profit agency providing free legal services to low-income persons and those with disabilities. In addition, Mr. Hoover was appointed by the United States Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit to its Pro Bono Panel for a three-year term. Members of this panel provide pro bono counsel to pro se parties in civil appeals in which briefing and argument by counsel would assist the Court in deciding those cases.

At Phillips Lytle, Mr. Hoover focuses his practice on commercial litigation and white collar and federal criminal defense, including internal investigations, tax controversies, professional defense, sophisticated appeals and parallel proceedings. He earned his J.D., Order of the Coif, Vanderbilt University School of Law and his B.A., With High Honor, from Michigan State University. Mr. Hoover is a member of the American, New York State and Erie County Bar Associations and is a board member of the Michigan State University Alumni Association, Buffalo Chapter.

Phillips Lytle LLP, a full service law firm, is celebrating its 175th anniversary in 2009. The firm has seven offices across New York State in Buffalo, Albany, Chautauqua, Garden City, New York City and Rochester. With the farthest geographic reach of any law firm in the state of New York, Phillips Lytle is well equipped to meet the needs of their clients.
