PHILLIPS LYTLE LLP PARTNERS FREDERICK G. ATTEA AND GREGORY L. PETERSON PRESENT AT NON-PROFIT CLE SEMINAR

BUFFALO, NY – Frederick G. Attea, a partner with Phillips Lytle LLP, one of the region's best known law firms, recently presented at a CLE seminar titled "Who's on Board?: Nonprofit issues and responsibilities." His presentation discussed the topic of board of governance. Gregory L. Peterson, also a partner with Phillips Lytle, provided the welcome and introductions for the seminar, which was held at the Robert H. Jackson Center in Jamestown.

At Phillips Lytle, Mr. Attea is engaged in securities and corporate practice with emphasis on mergers and acquisitions, joint ventures and securities law compliance. Listed in The Best Lawyers in America® and the Upstate New York Super Lawyers, he is a member of the American, New York State and Erie County Bar Associations. Mr. Attea earned his J.D., with honors, from Fordham University School of Law and his B.S., magna cum laude, from Canisius College. He serves as secretary on the board of trustees for Calspan-University of Buffalo Research Center and is on the board of directors for World Trade Center Buffalo Niagara and The Foundation of the Roman Catholic Diocese of Buffalo.

Office Leader of the firm's Chautauqua County offices, Mr. Peterson focuses his practice in all areas of real estate. A member of the American, New York, Jamestown, Pennsylvania and Northern Chautauqua County Bar Associations, he earned a J.D. from The Dickinson School of Law of the Pennsylvania State University and a B.A., Phi Beta Kappa, from Allegheny College. He currently serves as President of the Robert H. Jackson Center in Jamestown and is on the board of directors for The Resource Center and the Fredonia College Foundation.

Phillips Lytle LLP, one of the region's best known law firms, is celebrating its 175th anniversary in 2009. The firm has seven offices across New York State in Buffalo, Albany, Chautauqua, Garden City, New York City and Rochester.
