PHILLIPS LYTLE LLP TREATS 175 LOCAL BOYS AND GIRLS TO A DAY AT MONROE COUNTY'S SENECA PARK ZOO

In recognition of its 175th anniversary, law firm is giving back to its local communities and today brightened the day for the city's youngest residents

ROCHESTER, NY – Phillips Lytle LLP attorneys hosted 175 children from various City of Rochester recreation centers for a day at Monroe County's Seneca Park Zoo on August 17. The law firm provided the children with free admission to the zoo and a picnic lunch. The contribution was in recognition of the 175th anniversaries of both Phillips Lytle and the City of Rochester this year.

"As we are sharing the same milestone as the City of Rochester this year, Phillips Lytle wanted to show our appreciation by treating the city's youngest residents to a fun-filled day at Seneca Park Zoo," said Richard M. Beers, Phillips Lytle's Rochester office leader. "We are excited to provide an opportunity for them to enjoy one of the treasures in our community."

The following recreation centers participated in today's outing: #41 School, #42 School, ArtSmart Summer Camp, Edgerton Recreation Center, Field Street Recreation Center, LaGrange Recreation Center, Marshall High School and South Avenue Recreation Center.

"We thank Phillips Lytle for this unique opportunity to utilize one of our amazing resources in Monroe County as Phillips Lytle and the City of Rochester, both celebrate our 175 anniversaries. This great collaboration offer 175 of our recreation participants the chance to explore and have fun at the zoo. Now that is a celebration," said Luis Burgos, Director of Recreation.

Phillips Lytle and its attorneys have been involved in local charitable and philanthropic activities throughout its long history and as a token of appreciation for its 175th anniversary this year, the firm is giving back to those cities and communities that have allowed them to reach this milestone, including Rochester.
