PHILLIPS LYTLE SPECIAL COUNSEL ALISA A. LUKASIEWICZ TO CHAIR UPCOMING BUFFALO & ERIE COUNTY HISTORICAL SOCIETY EVENT

BUFFALO, NY – Alisa A. Lukasiewicz, special counsel with Phillips Lytle LLP, one of the region's best known law firms, is serving as chair for the upcoming Buffalo & Erie County Historical Society's "Paint the Town" event on September 26. The 11th annual art auction features 50 artists who have each created an original piece of art inspired by the City of Buffalo, its people and its many landmarks.

At Phillips Lytle, Ms. Lukasiewicz concentrates her practice in the area of labor and employment law, representing employers in both the private and public sectors. She earned her J.D., cum laude, from University at Buffalo Law School and her B.A., summa cum laude, from Canisius College. Ms. Lukasiewicz is also a member of the Erie County and New York State Bar Associations.

Phillips Lytle LLP, one of the region's best known law firms, is celebrating its 175th anniversary in 2009. The firm has seven offices across New York State in Buffalo, Albany, Chautauqua, Garden City, New York City and Rochester. With the farthest geographic reach of any law firm in the state of New York, Phillips Lytle is well equipped to meet the needs of their clients.
