PHILLIPS LYTLE ATTORNEY TAYLAN SEN APPOINTED TO INFOTECH NIAGARA BOARD OF DIRECTORS

BUFFALO, NY – Taylan Sen, an attorney with Phillips Lytle LLP, one of the region’s best known law firms, was recently appointed to the board of directors of infoTech Niagara for a one-year term. infoTech Niagara is the trade association of Western New York’s information technology industry.

At Phillips Lytle, Mr. Sen concentrates his practice in all areas of intellectual property law, with particular emphasis on patent prosecution and opinion work in the biotechnology, software and electrical arts. He received his J.D. from University at Buffalo Law School, his M.S. in biological engineering and B.S. in electrical engineering from Cornell University. Mr. Sen is a member of the American Intellectual Property Law Association, the American Society for Microbiology and the New York State Bar Association.

Phillips Lytle LLP, a full service law firm, is celebrating its 175th anniversary in 2009. The firm has seven offices across New York State in Buffalo, Albany, Chautauqua, Garden City, New York City and Rochester. With the farthest geographic reach of any law firm in the state of New York, Phillips Lytle is well equipped to meet the needs of their clients.
