PHILLIPS LYTLE LLP ADDS TO TRIAL PRACTICE GROUP

Firm announces hire of Alisa A. Lukasiewicz

BUFFALO, NY – Phillips Lytle LLP, one of the region's best known law firms, continues to grow its Buffalo office with the addition of Alisa A. Lukasiewicz as special counsel. She most recently served as corporation counsel for the City of Buffalo.

At Phillips Lytle, Ms. Lukasiewicz concentrates her practice in the area of labor and employment law, representing clients in both the private and public sectors on labor issues. She focuses on general litigation matters including governmental liability, municipal law, professional negligence, personal injury and general commercial litigation. Ms. Lukasiewicz received her J.D. cum laude, from University at Buffalo Law School and her B.A., summa cum laude, from Canisius College. A member of the Erie County and New York State Bar Associations, she also serves on the board of the Buffalo & Erie County Historical Society. Ms. Lukasiewicz resides in the City of Buffalo.

Phillips Lytle LLP, one of the region's best known law firms, is celebrating its 175th anniversary in 2009. The firm has seven offices across New York State in Buffalo, Albany, Chautauqua, Garden City, New York City and Rochester. With the farthest geographic reach of any law firm in the state of New York, Phillips Lytle is well equipped to meet the needs of their clients.
