PHILLIPS LYTLE LLP GIVES BACK TO JAMESTOWN'S ST. SUSAN CENTER

In recognition of its 175th anniversary, law firm donates time volunteering to serve meals along with $1,750 for future meals

JAMESTOWN, NY – Attorneys and staff from Phillips Lytle LLP's Jamestown office spent today not serving legal documents, but serving those most in need in the local community by volunteering during the lunchtime meal at St. Susan Center in Jamestown. In addition, Phillips Lytle donated $1,750 to St. Susan Center in recognition of the law firm's 175th anniversary, being celebrated this year.

"St. Susan Center does an outstanding job to ensure Jamestown residents do not go without a meal," said Gregory L. Peterson, Phillips Lytle's Jamestown office leader. "Volunteering to serve a meal was a very meaningful experience for all of us who participated. We hope our donation will help to make a difference for those who need it most in our community."

Established in 1984, St. Susan Center is a place where respect is served with each meal and every guest is an important part of the Jamestown community. For neighbors who face challenges, St. Susan Center provides a nutritional lunchtime meal every day. The Center also serves as a safe haven for the physically, mentally and emotionally challenged individuals in the community who feel isolated.

St. Susan Mission Statement is "to freely offer food, fellowship, dignity and respect to all whom come through our doors."

Phillips Lytle and its attorneys have been involved in local charitable and philanthropic activities throughout its long history and as a token of appreciation for its 175th anniversary this year, the firm is giving back to those cities and communities that have allowed them to reach this milestone, including Jamestown.
