PHILLIPS LYTLE LLP PARTNER RICHARD E. HONEN CONTRIBUTES TO ALBANY LAW SCHOOL PUBLICATION

ALBANY, NY – Richard E. Honen, a partner with Phillips Lytle LLP, one of the region’s best known law firms, contributed to Albany Law School Center for Law & Innovation’s new “Legal Handbook for Early Stage Businesses.” The handbook was created as an education tool to assist entrepreneurs and start-up companies with legal issues that may arise in the early stages of business formation. Mr. Honen serves on the advisory board and helped with writing and editing the handbook.

At Phillips Lytle, Mr. Honen focuses his practice in corporate and venture capital law and commercial litigation, providing corporate counsel to a broad spectrum of companies with a particular emphasis on emerging growth and start-up companies. He earned his J.D. from Albany Law School Union University and his B.A. from UAlbany. Active with several economic and venture capital organizations within the Capital Region, Mr. Honen is a founding member of the Tech Valley Angels Network, an advisory board member of the Science and Technology Law Center at Albany Law School, a board member of the Albany-Colonie Regional Chamber of Commerce, and a former executive committee member and director with The Center for Economic Growth. He has been named to The Best Lawyers in America[®] listing and is included on the Upstate New York Super Lawyers list.

Phillips Lytle LLP, one of the region’s best known law firms, is celebrating its 175th anniversary in 2009. The firm has seven offices across New York State in Buffalo, Albany, Chautauqua, Garden City, New York City and Rochester. With the farthest geographic reach of any law firm in the state of New York, Phillips Lytle is well equipped to meet the needs of their clients.
