PHILLIPS LYTLE PARTNER DAVID P. FLYNN SPEAKS AT ERIE COUNTY BAR ASSOCIATION ENVIRONMENTAL COMMITTEE MEETING

BUFFALO, NY – David P. Flynn, a partner with Phillips Lytle LLP, one of the region’s best known law firms, recently presented at the Erie County Bar Association’s Environmental Committee Meeting. Mr. Flynn discussed the role of Marcellus Shale in New York’s energy future.

At Phillips Lytle, Mr. Flynn concentrates his practice in the areas of environmental law and energy and is the practice team leader for the firm’s nanotechnology practice team. A member of the American, New York State and Erie County Bar Associations, he earned his J.D., cum laude, from University at Buffalo Law School and his B.A. from University at Buffalo. Mr. Flynn sits on the executive committee for the National Brownfield Association, New York Chapter, serves as vice chairman of the Amherst Chamber of Commerce, and is a member of The Council of The Burchfield-Penney Art Center.

Phillips Lytle LLP, one of the region’s best known law firms, is celebrating its 175th anniversary in 2009. The firm has seven offices across New York State in Buffalo, Albany, Chautauqua, Garden City, New York City and Rochester. With the farthest geographic reach of any law firm in the state of New York, Phillips Lytle is well equipped to meet the needs of their clients.
